Rule Committee of the Personal Injury Commission

RESOLUTION #3 of 2025

Pursuant to section 19(7) of the Personal Injury Commission Act 2020

On 27 February 2025, the Rule Committee of the Personal Injury Commission of New South Wales (Committee) resolved unanimously by an out-of-session vote as follows:

1. To instruct the Parliamentary Counsel's Office (PCO) to amend rule 133A(5) of the Personal Injury Commission Rules 2021 to apply the test of "the decision-maker may make the order if satisfied by the party making the extension application, that special circumstances justify an increase in the period for a review" to applications made under rr 133A(1)(b), (c) and (d); and to clarify that the test of "the decision-maker may make the order if satisfied by the party making the extension application, in exceptional circumstances, that to lose the right to make the relevant application would work demonstrable and substantial injustice" to applications made under r 133A(1)(a).

The President voted for the resolution set out above.
