Notice to Parties

NOTICE TO APPLICANT

Form 2 is the correct form to use for a dispute or claim about:

- compensation for permanent impairment
- compensation for pain and suffering
- compensation for property damage
- domestic assistance

There are two forms available for referral of disputes concerning weekly payments and medical expenses.

Use the table below to decide the appropriate form.

Claim Type	Form Type
Weekly benefits work capacity only	Form 1
Weekly benefits up to 12 weeks and/or past medical expenses up to $9,468.10*	Form 1
Weekly benefits work capacity and past medical expenses greater than $9,468.10* and/or any future medical expenses	Form 2
Weekly benefits more than 12 weeks and/or past medical expenses greater than $9,468.10* and/or any future medical expenses	Form 2

Please note that the amount of $9,468.10 is subject to adjustment under Division 6 of Part 3 of the 1987 Act.

Form 2D is to be used for applications in respect of the death of a worker.

Failure to attach all relevant documents identified in this section will result in your application being rejected by the Commission

NOTICE TO RESPONDENT

You have 21 days from the date of registration of this application to respond by:

- lodging a reply with the Commission, and
- serving a sealed copy of the reply on each other party.

If you do not respond to the application, the Commission may progress the application in the absence of your reply.

Employers should contact their workers compensation insurer/scheme agent about lodging a reply.

NOTICE TO PARTIES

The application and the reply must accord with the Worker's Compensation Commission Rules 2011.

PRIVACY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The privacy of personal information is important to the Workers Compensation Commission. The Commission collects personal information to register application forms and make decisions about disputes or claims. The NSW workers compensation laws permit the Commission to collect this information.

The Commission may give personal information to another person or agency (e.g. a doctor, a party, State Insurance Regulatory Authority) as required or authorised by law.

Decisions by the Commission will generally be published, including on the Internet, unless there are exceptional circumstances justifying the decision being withheld.

A person has a right to access their personal information and correct any inaccuracies.

Completing a Form/Application

All forms/applications are embedded in the online platform. Data fields enable you to enter free text or select from drop down lists or calendars to complete relevant information. You no longer need to complete a PDF or Word version of the form. Supporting documents are uploaded as a single file (see separate section below).

Mandatory fields

When completing a form, all fields with a yellow background are mandatory.

Not for use fields

Fields with a grey background are not available within the form type.

Help Text

Each form has embedded help text to assist you to complete the form. Click on the  to display the additional information relevant to that section

Navigating pages in a form

You can navigate through the pages in a form by selecting

Alternatively, you can use the Pages menu to navigate between pages as highlighted below.

The screenshot displays the 'Form 2 - Notice to Parties' interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, New Application/Form, Files, Diary, User Profile, and Logout. Below this, the form title 'Form 2 - Notice to Parties' is shown. A 'Pages' dropdown menu is open, listing various sections: Notice to Parties, Application to Resolve a Dispute, Worker Details, Employer Details, Insurer / Scheme Agent Details, Injury Details, Supporting Documents, and Certification and Signature. The 'Application to Resolve a Dispute' section is currently selected. The main content area of the form is titled 'NOTICE TO APPLICANT' and contains a table for selecting issues in dispute. The table has columns for 'Issue', 'Status', and 'Amount'. The 'Issue' column lists 'Weekly benefits where liability in dispute and medical expenses' and 'Weekly benefits where liability in dispute and medical expenses'. The 'Status' column shows 'Incomplete', 'Complete', and 'Error'. The 'Amount' column shows '$9,468.10'.

Selecting issues in dispute

Additional pages will be inserted into the form based on the selected matters/issues in dispute.

In the example below, the selected issues are weekly benefits where liability in dispute and medical expenses (where the amount is more than $9,468.10).

Saving draft forms

Click on the Save Draft button to save a draft of your form. You can access any saved drafts for up to 14 calendar days through the Files menu under Temporary Applications.

A PDF icon will be displayed for any draft application from which you can open, view, save and print the draft form.

Submitting forms

Click on the Submit button to save and submit your form. The form status will change to Pending. You will be advised by email when your form is accepted by the Commission.

If your form is rejected, it will display again in the Temporary Applications section. You can amend the form and resubmit.

Supporting documents

Supporting documents for forms should be uploaded as a single indexed and paginated PDF file of the documents. Files should be no more than 200MB. If your supporting documents are greater than 200MB, you will need to upload the documents in parts. Documents must not be password protected.

The index should precede the documents in the PDF file and be in the following format:

Document	Author	Date of Document	Start Page

When completing the documents table in the online portal, you should select:

Document Category - Supporting Documents

Document Type - select relevant form type

For the upload, the author should be “various”, and the date of document should be the lodging date.

There is also provision for a covering letter to be included if needed (for example to request expedition) – simply choose “covering letter” as both the category and type and upload as a separate document

Lodge submissions and other correspondence

Select Files from the menu.

Select the matter no to upload submissions or correspondence.

Select New Submission/Correspondence button on the top right corner.

If, during a first access period, a party seeks to restrict access to any documents under Rule 13.9 of the Workers Compensation Commission Rules 2011, an email should be forwarded to registry@wcc.nsw.gov.au with details of:

- the matter no;
- party names;
- producer, and
- page numbers in the PDF document to be excluded from general access.

This must be done before the end of the first access period.

A party seeking to restrict access will also need to comply with Rule 13.9(2)(c) with respect to advising the other parties to proceedings.

Adding Counsel

If you brief a barrister in a matter, you can add them to the file. Once the barrister has registered to use the portal (using the same registration page as outlined above), they will be able to view all documents lodged and issued in the proceedings.

If you change barristers, you can re-assign the matter to the alternate barrister.
