Privacy of Personal Information

The privacy of personal information is important to the Workers Compensation Commission. The Commission collects personal information to register application forms and make decisions about disputes or claims. The NSW workers compensation laws permit the Commission to collect this information.

The Commission may give personal information to another person or agency (e.g. a doctor, a party, State Insurance Regulatory Authority) as required or authorised by law.

Decisions by the Commission will generally be published, including on the Internet, unless there are exceptional circumstances justifying the decision being withheld.

A person has a right to access their personal information and correct any inaccuracies.
